our products

Welcome to Redone Impex - Your Trusted Source for Castor Oil

Cold-Pressed Castor Oil

Refined Castor oil

Jamaican Black Castor Oil

Hydrogenated Castor Oil

PRODUCTS DESCRIPTION

1.Cold-Pressed Castor Oil:

- Extraction Process: Cold-pressed castor oil is extracted from castor seeds using a hydraulic press without heat. The pressing process retains more of the natural properties of the oil.
- Uses: Hair care, Skin care, Laxative, Joint pain, Nail care, Natural Lubricant.

2.Refined Castor Oil:

- Extraction and Processing: Refined castor oil undergoes additional processing steps, including filtering and sometimes bleaching. This process removes impurities and results in a clearer, colorless oil.
- Uses: Industrial lubricant, Pharmaceuticals, Textile industry, Bio-diesel production, Paints and Coating, Polyurethane industry.

3..Jamaican Black Castor Oil:

- Processing Method: This type of castor oil involves roasting the castor beans before extraction, giving the oil a dark color and distinctive aroma.
- Traditional Use: Jamaican Black Castor Oil has a long history of use in traditional Jamaican beauty and wellness practices. It is often promoted for hair and skin care.

4.Hydrogenated Castor Oil:

- Processing Method: Hydrogenation involves the addition of hydrogen to the oil to make it more solid at room temperature. This creates a product known as hydrogenated castor oil or castor wax.
- Use: It is often used in cosmetic and skincare products as a thickening or hardening agent.
